Address: 529 14th St. NW, 13th Floor, Washington, D.C., 20045

Phone: (202) 662-7500

Time Zone

Washington, D.C. is in the Eastern Time Zone (ET).

Temperature

The month of April in Washington D.C. is typically pleasant with highs of 76°F with lows of 54°F.

Attire

The general dress code for the event is business attire. As indoor environments tend to be cool, we encourage you to dress in layers or bring a sweater, jacket, or shawl and wear comfortable shoes.

DUTY OF CARE

Five Star Institute is following the National Press Club's COVID-19 safety guidelines for this in-person event.

All visitors will be asked to provide proof of vaccination for entry or submit documents one week prior showing a religious or medical exemption AND a negative COVID-19 PCR test. Providing photos of vaccination card on a mobile device will suffice. For your convenience, attendees are also able to upload a photo of their Vaccination Card to <https://press.org/vaxpass> prior to arriving at the event.

Additionally, temperature check stations are available at the entrance to the Club. No one with a temperature of 100.4°F (38°C) should enter the Club.

Documents describing a religious or medical vaccination exemption should be submitted at least one week prior to the event via safety@press.org. Additionally, a negative COVID-19 PCR test taken within the last 24 hours should be provided to the NPC upon arrival.

The current mask policy at the National Press Club is "Masks Recommended."

You can read the club's full COVID-19 Safety Guidelines at <https://press.org/safetyfirst>.

The Five Star Institute will execute the following best practices to help attendees and staff stay healthy and to reduce exposure and risk:

- Provide sanitizing and disinfection materials for general attendee use.
- Increase cleaning and disinfection across high-volume common areas.
- Monitor recommendations from the relevant health authorities including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the local government and city officials.
- Encourage attendees to adopt best practices for their own best interest and the best interest of their fellow attendees

Attendees should manage their own preparedness and behavior:

- If you are feeling feverish or coughing prior to arriving at the conference, please stay home.
- Masks are encouraged, unless actively eating or drinking.
- Wash and sanitize your hands regularly.
- Be mindful of others' comfort levels during interaction and practice social distancing when appropriate.
- Consider adopting a no-handshake policy to prevent the spread of germs.

Five Star Institute is taking precautions to ensure your safety as conditions change daily. Additional guidelines for social distancing or masks may be implemented upon arrival.

TRAVEL TIPS

Air

We encourage you to reconfirm any air travel directly with the airlines 24 hours prior to departure in the event schedule changes have occurred. On your designated travel day, it is recommended that you arrive at the airport at least 1.5 hours in advance of your departure time due to increased TSA wait times.

Should air travel issues impact your event attendance, please reach out to us at Events@TheFiveStar.com.

Baggage

Domestic baggage fees will vary by carrier. You can review these charges online based on carrier or upon your arrival at the airport. Please note: There is a weight limit on baggage. See your carrier website for additional information.

All medications should be brought in your carry-on. Do not pack necessary medications in your checked bags.
